FEDERAL CREDIT UNION

Privacy Policy

TUOEMAS Federal Credit Union is owned by its members and run by a board of directors you elect. You can be confident that your financial privacy is a top priority of this credit union. We are required by law to give you this privacy notice to explain how we collect, use and safeguard your personal financial information.

We are committed to providing you with competitive products and services to meet your financial needs, which necessitates that we share information about you to complete your transactions and to provide you with certain financial opportunities. In order to do so, we have entered into agreements with other companies that provide either services to us or additional financial products for you to consider.

Information We Collect and Disclose About You

We collect and may disclose nonpublic personal information about you from the following sources:

- Information we receive from you on membership and loan applications and other forms;
- Information about your transactions with us or others;
- Information we receive from a consumer reporting agency;
- Information obtained when verifying the information you provide on an application or other forms, such as from your current or past employers or from other institutions where you conduct financial transactions.

We may disclose all the information we collect, as disclosed previously, to companies that perform marketing or other services on our behalf or to other financial institutions with whom we have joint marketing agreements. To protect our members' privacy, we only work with companies that agree to maintain strong confidentiality protections and limit the use of information we provide. We do not permit these companies to sell to other third parties the information we provide to them.

We may also disclose information we collect about you under other circumstances as permitted or required by law. These disclosures typically include information to process transactions on your behalf, conduct the operations of our credit union, follow your instructions as you authorize, or protect the security of our financial records.

If you terminate your membership with TUOEMAS Federal Credit Union, we will not share information we have collected about you, except as permitted or required by law.

How We Protect Your Information

We restrict access to nonpublic personal information about you to those employees who have a specific business purpose in utilizing your data. Our employees are trained in the importance of maintaining confidentiality and member privacy. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations and leading industry practices to safeguard your nonpublic personal information.

Online Privacy

TUOEMAS Federal Credit Union wants you to be confident that your financial privacy is a top priority of this credit union. This page describes how we collect and use the information from our public web site at www.tucoemas.org and our eTeller Home Banking and PayIT Bill Payments services.

TUOEMAS does not gather user-specific information, details from your computer Internet software or save data about you other than what is needed to access eTeller Home Banking and/or PayIT services. You must have cookies enabled on your browser to use these services. Additional information about cookies is provided when you initiate access to these services.

We do not share data collected from you, during your visit to our web site, with third parties unless it is specifically required to process your transaction, or requested by you. Examples of data sharing would be processing membership and loan applications and our policy of running credit reports based upon the information you provide. Credit reporting information is provided to TFCU by third parties we trust and with whom we have a business relationship.

When you visit www.tucoemas.org, you do so without revealing your personal identity. Our systems recognize the pages that you visit within our site. The credit union collects aggregate information on site traffic, such as dates and hours of use, to compile statistics to help us improve the site. The information is used solely for these analytical purposes.

We use return E-mail addresses to answer the E-mail we receive. E-mail addresses are not shared with other companies, unless requested by you.

Children's Privacy
